

JINK & DIDDLE SCHOOL OF SCOTTISH FIDDLE

2017 Scholarship Application Policies & Procedures

DEADLINES

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS SHOULD BE SUBMITTED AS EARLY AS POSSIBLE.

Although awards will not be made until March 2017, decisions between two equally qualified candidates will be based on application date.

March 31, 2017 is the school's early registration deadline.

ALL SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS MUST HAVE SUBMITTED THEIR REGISTRATION AND PAID THEIR FULL DEPOSIT BY THAT DATE. If attendance is dependent on a scholarship award, the minimum award needed to attend should be noted on the application. If the student is not awarded a scholarship in at least that amount, the application will be withdrawn and the deposit refunded.

June 15, 2017 is the school's payment deadline.

ALL SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS MUST HAVE PAID ANY OUTSTANDING BALANCES BY THAT DATE.

ANY AWARD WILL IMMEDIATELY BE WITHDRAWN IF EITHER DEADLINE IS MISSED.

ALL SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS MUST BE WEEK 1 RESIDENT PARTICIPANTS.

APPLICATION

Here is the simple procedure to apply for a scholarship to the Week 1 Summer Session of The Jink & Diddle School of Scottish Fiddling.

- Applicants should write to the Scholarship Committee (e-mail to jinkdiddle@aol.com is fine) describing:
 1. their musical background/experience
 2. their interest in Scottish Fiddling
 3. what they would hope to achieve by attending the Summer School.
- Have a teacher, mentor or sponsor send a letter of recommendation on their behalf.
- Applicants may voluntarily supply need-based data to strengthen their application – but it is not necessary to do so for scholarship consideration.

AWARDS

We offer up to fifty percent (50%) of resident fees due & payable to qualifying individuals. This does not include additional fees for private accommodations.

Note: We regret that we are unable to grant awards to all qualified individuals. Preference is usually given to first time attendees.
